

Sky's the Limit Entertainment Releases “Bad Gyal” by its First Afrobeat Artist Ziggee Boy

Single Features Billboard Charting Pop Artist Eddie Jones; Mixed by Suka Sounds, Distributed by Tuff Gong International

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, December 16, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Sky's the Limit Entertainment released “Bad Gyal,” a mid-tempo rhythmic Afropop song written and performed by its first Afrobeat artist Ziggee Boy and featuring and co-written by its Billboard charting Pop singer/songwriter Eddie Jones. The song, which Ziggee Boy co-produced with the label's senior producer and co-owner Art Powell, aka Art The Great, represents Ziggee Boy's debut release that was mixed and engineered by renowned sound engineer Suka Sounds based in Nigeria and distributed by Tuff Gong International (through Blachawk Records). The song is now available on Spotify, iTunes, Amazon, and other major digital music platforms.

Designed by Eddie Harris

Ziggee Boy, a Washington, DC area resident, is from Sierra Leone where he first developed his passion for music, particularly Afrobeat music that originated in West Africa and has gained immense popularity in recent years within the U.S. and global music scenes. He describes “Bad Gyal” as Afropop because it fuses traditional Afrobeat sounds with Pop elements well known in music originated in the U.S. On Bad Gyal's theme, Ziggee Boy says the message of the song, which celebrates the beauty of a woman's body, is universal for those worldwide who appreciate the beauty of the female form.

For this release, Sky's the Limit Entertainment is pleased to partner with Afropolitan Cities, a preeminent U.S.-based organization dedicated to building a united and dynamic global Diaspora network and connecting and empowering Diaspora communities, businesses, and professionals around the world for opportunity creation and socio-economic development.
