Automotive Belt Tensioner Pulleys Market 2017

The timing belt manufacturers have been using advanced materials for manufacturing the timing belt. As the replacement of every timing belt was accompanied by the replacement of the belt tensioner pulley, use of advanced materials has caused a decline in the growth of the global automotive belt tensioner pulleys market by increasing the replacement time of timing belts.

The analysts forecast the global automotive belt tensioner pulleys market to grow at a CAGR of 3.03% during the period 2017-2021.
