

NY Gov. Andrew Cuomo has a History of Protecting Sexual Predators & Rapists

Governor Andrew Cuomo is in no position to lead any reforms regarding sexual predators, he has been protecting sexual predators and rapists for over a decade

ALBANY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Senate Majority leader John Flanagan's words bring hope for genuine changes to protect women and children from sexual predators. The vital 911 Civil Rights bill S4736A/A6830 will ensure all reported sex crimes committed against the disabled go directly to 911 call centers throughout New York State so the police can immediately respond and arrest the sexual predators and rapists.

The most dangerous people and criminals are those that protect and shield sexual predators and rapists allowing them to continue to rape and destroy more innocent victims' lives - Governor Andrew Cuomo is the worst of the worst and extremely dangerous.

"Flanagan's statement broadly noted plans to "protect women and children from violence and sexual predators, and to stop the scourge of sexual harassment that has plagued our society for far too long" as well."

Governor Cuomo must be held accountable by law for allowing countless women and children to be raped by known sexual predator's and rapists within his mental health agencies”

Michael Carey - Advocate for people with disabilities and their families

“The critical 911 Civil Rights Bill which has three quarters of all New York State legislator's support will not only help root out sexual predators, but end decades of shameful discrimination against 1,000,000 New Yorkers with disabilities.” – Michael Carey

Surveillance camera legislation for both facilities and transport vehicles initiated by Civil and Disability Rights Advocate, Michael Carey, are also crucial to deter sex crimes from occurring and to ensure the swift arrest and prosecution of these individuals that are a danger to society.

Tragically, Governor Cuomo has failed to protect women and children from sexual predators as evidenced by these actions;

-Sam Hoyt – Governor Cuomo knew of his past history, yet promoted him anyway.

-Jay Kiyonaga - Governor Cuomo knows that most reported sexual assaults and rapes of women and children with disabilities in his State's agencies that house the disabled are never reported to local police and County District Attorney's. Jay Kiyonaga headed up Cuomo's, wrongfully named the Justice Center, which covers –up almost all rapes. Kiyonaga was recently promoted by Gov. Cuomo to be the Deputy Commissioner of OPWDD, over 126,000 developmentally disabled people's lives, after allegations of sexual harassment were made against Kiyonaga.

Governor Cuomo took no emergency actions to immediately protect people with disabilities from being sexually abused or hold their predators accountable following the award winning New York Times "Abused and Used" investigative reporting series, requested by Michael Carey, that became a runner up for a Pulitzer Prize.

The New York Times Editorial Board blasted Governor Cuomo for refusing to ensure the most basic actions to protect the disabled from sexual abuse and all types of abuse or death, following the massive "Abused and Used" investigative series, which should have catapulted major reforms to protect our most vulnerable in 2011.

The New York Times Editorial is titled, "Protecting the Most Vulnerable".

"Two-and-a-half years ago, The Times reported horrifying abuse of people with developmental disabilities or mental illnesses by state employees, who were rarely punished for it. Gov. Andrew Cuomo promised action. But too little appears to have changed."

"There is much the governor could do. He could require surveillance cameras in these facilities, just as prisons have them. He could make sure that the police get more involved."

Governor Cuomo chose to protect sexual predators and rapists from being jailed leaving everyone's children in New York State potentially in danger. When these sexually deviant individuals escape prosecution and the sex abuse registry, no one knows if they are living next door. This pedophile New York State employee/caregiver escaped justice for years and would be still raping if he wasn't finally apprehended by the feds.

'It was a predator's dream': NY pays $3M to family of molested boy

This news story, quite frankly, would make practically anyone sick. This extremely disturbing statement made by this pedophile speaks volumes of Governor Andrew Cuomo's mental health care system;

"The lack of supervision there made it easy to do what I did," DeProspero said in a handwritten affidavit obtained by The Associated Press. "I could have stayed in that house for years and abused him every day without anybody even noticing at all. It was a predator's dream."

No longer can 911 and local police be bypassed, 911 call systems must be immediately called by all mandated reporters regarding all sexual abuse and rapes. Currently, Governor Cuomo has directed these sex crimes to be internally reported where almost all disappear.
