Description

WiseGuyReports.Com adds" Global Feed Flavors and Sweeteners Market 2017-2021 "Research To Its Database.

Feed flavors and sweeteners are additives that are included in livestock, poultry, swine, aquaculture, and other animal feeds in order to mask the bitterness of the feed. Since the intake of feed by animals depends on several factors, such as thermal environment, stocking density, genotype, and dietary factors, these additives are included as they enhance the taste, smell, and texture, resulting in the increased feed intake by the livestock and other animals, and improved performance.
