

Moira Cue Makes Debut at LA Art Show Friday, January 12, 2018 with Stunning New Art

Moira Cue makes her LA Art Show debut for her 'Virtue Series' black and white paintings, Friday January 12-14, 2018 at the Bruce Lurie Gallery Booth #624 in LA.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, January 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Award-winning painter Moira Cue premiered her monumental, black and white abstract "Virtue Series" at the world-famous Bruce Lurie Gallery in Culver City, California on Saturday, January 6th, 2018, which will be extended one week after the LA Art Show with a closing night party. She next debuts several of the highly acclaimed works at the LA Art Show, at the Bruce Lurie Gallery Booth, #624, today; Friday, January 12-14, 2018, at the Los Angeles Convention Center.

International, acclaimed Dealer and Gallerist Bruce Lurie gave Jean-Michel Basquiat his first major gallery show in New York City. The Bruce Lurie Gallery was established in the early 1980's in New York's East Village. Bruce Lurie is widely known for launching emerging artists into the mainstream art scene, and in his early career gave Jean-Michel Basquiat his first show as requested by Leo Castelli. The Bruce Lurie gallery has since relocated to Los Angeles' Culver City Arts District. The gallery has a particular focus on establishing emerging to mid-career artists specializing in cutting edge street art, abstract minimalism, and pop art, with an additional recent focus on photography. The Bruce Lurie Gallery features a wide range of monumental sculptors as well.
