Agent Magazine's first issues of the year have been released, profiling real estate and mortgage professionals Michelle Gordon, Christin Luckman, David Arustamian, Caroline Collins, and Hunter Potter. The January 2018 editions are available in their entirety on the magazine's website.

“

Those featured in our January issues embody the characteristics that all homebuyers, sellers, and borrowers look for in real estate and lending professionals.”

Lisa White

Appearing on the cover of the real estate edition, is Michelle Gordon, an Ada, Michigan based agent who has been providing buyers and sellers with residential and commercial real estate services since 2002. Inside profile stories include spotlights on Gilbert, Arizona based David Arustamian; Temecula, California based Caroline Collins; and Port Huron, Michigan based Hunter Potter.

The mortgage edition features an in-depth profile of Chicago, Illinois based mortgage professional Christin Luckman, who has been named one of the nation's top mortgage originators multiple times.

According to Featured Agent Magazine's Managing Editor, Lisa White, “Those featured in our January issues embody the characteristics that all homebuyers, sellers, and borrowers look for in real estate and lending professionals. They are dedicated, hardworking, and skillful, and we're honored to feature them in our first issues of the new year.”

Featured Agent Magazine's audience includes homebuyers, sellers and borrowers, in addition to real estate and mortgage professionals. Each issue includes profiles of innovative, successful, or break-out professionals, along with custom editorial how-to articles and real estate and financing tips and insight.

Featured Agent Magazine also offers an online agent directory, where readers can easily locate and learn more about professionals featured. Archived editorial content is also available free of charge to all visitors to the website.
