

Actress and Model Yasemin Rosanova to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

SKOKIE, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, January 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Many young women dream of being famous Hollywood actresses and models. When you possess the talent, determination, and drive you are destined for success.

Yasemin Rosanova is an award-winning working actress and model.

"Last year I was in the INTA in New York and I won various awards for acting," says Yasemin. "I continually go on various auditions looking for the right parts to play. I was recently featured in a two-piece spread of East Coast a high fashion modeling magazine Youikque Interprize that was absolutely magnificent."

Yasemin has played a variety of roles including a doctor in a film entitled "I'm Sorry" which she thoroughly enjoyed.

Yasmine is mainly drawn to intensive thought provoking roles and is able to skillfully play a variety of different characters.

"The reason I love acting is I'm able to express myself by playing interesting characters," says Yasmine. "I'm a very creative person and acting gives me that opportunity to express myself and immerse myself in my roles. My ultimate dream would be to play a part in a soap opera."

Yasemin is auditioning for a role for an upcoming film called Broken Hearted.

"Never give up on your life's goals and ambitions," says Yasemin. "It's critical to not let obstacles get in your way. If you let your dream dies so does your spirit. When you persist you can make all your dreams come true."

CUTV News Radio will feature Yasemin Rosanova in an interview with Jim Masters on January 16th at 1pm EST.
