

William Lightner and His Enlightening Journey Through Education and Beyond

MARIETTA, GA, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- William Lightner is defined by his tremendous work ethic and consistency in everything he does. Lightner lives up to the motto—hard work does pay off. His love for education combined with his personal attributes has given him the ability to travel and reach people around the world.

As an advocate for education, Lightner was sure to attend the very best schools possible. Even his early education was advanced. His attendance at a private Baptist school jump-started his passion for education. He then moved to Vestal High School to complete the next phase of his education, where he graduated with honors. His vast educational background and good grades provided him with a long list of prestigious colleges to choose from. After thoughtful consideration, he chose Judson University. Lightner explained his decision, "I chose Judson because they represent the Church in a high education environment."

Judson boasts the fact that they have slightly less than 1,500 pupils. The school promotes they are the perfect student-to-teacher ratio to really ensure success. They emphasize that they are "not too big, not too small."

Lightner having made the decision to attend Judson, has earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian Religion and Philosophy. Neither degree was handed to him on a silver spoon. Instead, Lightner studied long hours and sacrificed his free time to reach his goals. In addition to the degrees received at Judson University, Lightner also received his Master of Arts degree in Divinity.

With an advanced and well established educational background, Lightner was really able to build up his achievements and certifications.

Lightner earned achievements while serving in the United States Army. One being an advancement as a distinct honor graduate for finishing first in his class.

His success in the military carried over to other aspects of his life as well—One being his career at Kirby Vacuums. For four consecutive years, he earned Top Salesman of the Year. This is a very rare achievement in the Kirby empire. During the 48 months he worked with Kirby, he earned Salesman of the month 47 times.

Beyond his education and his career, Lightner's work ethic shines through in his hobby as a chess enthusiast. He finished third in a Chess Nationalist competition as well as won three separate chess State Championships.

William Lightner

"It could be professional or personal, I am competitive," says Lightner. "These awards are terrific for a resume, but the experience of winning is something I enjoy."

Lightner didn't stop once he achieved his degrees, instead of going on to pursue additional certificates and awards. He managed to earn his both his Series 6 and Series 63 licenses as a Financial advisor. These achievements really advanced his career into the financial system, and they're just the beginning.

"After hours of study, it was a blessing to pass these hard certification exams," says Lightner. "The hard work paid off, and the proof is in my career and awards I've earned over the years."

Eric Ash
Web Presence, LLC
941-266-8620
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2018 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.