

Expansion continues in the Middle East for Crane Worldwide Logistics.

Crane Worldwide Logistics opens its doors in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia this month with a fully-operational office based in Dammam.

HOUSTON, USA, January 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Crane Worldwide Logistics opens its doors in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia this month with a fully-operational office based in Dammam. Covering airfreight, oceanfreight and logistics services, the operation is strategically located in Al-Khobar that is served by King Fahd International airport and King Abdul Aziz Port.

'Saudi Arabia is seen by ourselves and many of our clients as an upcoming logistics hub. With economic diversification as a focus, commercial growth is paving the way for transport infrastructure development particularly at airport and ocean ports' comments Gerard Ryan, Regional Vice President EMEA. 'It is an exciting time for us to be opening our doors in Saudi Arabia with our experienced team, we openly invite new clients to try our technology, products and services and discover why Crane Worldwide is highly recommended by others in the Middle East region', he adds.

'Our new operation in Saudi Arabia is yet another step forward in our commitment to our client's business in the Middle East,' comments John Magee, President and CEO at Crane Worldwide Logistics. 'As the major crossroad between Asia, Africa and Europe, having our own offices in strategic locations across the Middle East region, will provide us with the opportunity to expand the services and benefits we are currently offering our clients in other regions.'

Crane Worldwide Logistics also has its own entities in both Dubai and Abu Dhabi with business across a number of sectors including Automotive, Aerospace and Energy.
