

COTTAGE CORPORATION ANNOUNCES NEW OWNERSHIP

The company will expand its services, accelerate growth and continue to be a healthy and prosperous business under new owners.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, UNITED STATES, January 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- St. Paul, MN, January 8, 2018– Cottage Corporation and Loren Smith has transitioned ownership to Jeff Kildow and investment group Franklin Douglass & Partners. For nearly 35 years Jeff Kildow has provided sales expertise, executive leadership and guidance and business support to companies spanning a range of sizes and industries. Cottage Corporation will maintain its core business of Plastic & Acrylic Fabrication, Manufacturing and Assembly while expanding its services to better serve its client's needs and requests.

"Our exceptional employees are the primary reason Cottage Corporation is sought by medical device, retail, pop display and other companies to provide superior fabrication services and quality plastic parts & components." Jeff Kildow | President

Cottage Corporation provides fast and affordable plastic and acrylic fabricated production parts. They have expertise in making acrylic displays to medical grade products and everything in between. Through offering solutions in plastic product design and fabrication, project management, sourcing and development, and secondary operations they produce products for well know companies such as Target, Kohls, Jockey, Dyson, Bissell, Philips, Samsung, Quill, Staples, Shark/Ninja and more.

"Cottage has been great to work with and the Target design team appreciates the open communication, quick turnaround and the efficient use of their time. Cottage Corporation continually impresses Target team members with their focus on customer service as they are both quick to answer questions and requests for information." Target Corporation
