

New Direct Flights & Affordable Packages Make Golf Getaway More Accessible For Snowbirds At Mazatlan's Estrella del Mar

New Enlarged Greens and Addition of John Jacobs Golf Academy Enhance Golf Experience

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, January 17, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MAZATLAN, MEXICO – January 18, 2018 -- Estrella del Mar, a 900-acre, gated oceanfront resort community in Mazatlan, Mexico, recently converted and enlarged all of the greens on its Robert Trent Jones, Jr. championship Estrella del Mar Golf Course, home to the PGA Latin American Tour, PGA Qualifying School, and the Mexican PGA Tour. In addition to the major improvements to the course, Estrella del Mar also welcomes the world renowned John Jacobs' Golf Academy to the resort featuring ½, 1, 2, 3 and 5 day instructional programs for golfers of all abilities.

The new enlarged greens have been converted to Pure Destiny Paspalum seeded variety. Pure Destiny is from the environmentally-friendly Pure Platinum paspalum turf grass developed by Dr. Ronald Duncan, a guru in the development of salt tolerant turf grasses. "We're always looking to enhance the Estrella del Mar golf experience and converting and enlarging our greens allows our members and resort guests to enjoy a more forgiving experience," said Brian Werner, Managing Director of Estrella del Mar. "When the President of Mexico, Enrique Pena Nieto, who plays here often tells you your greens are too small, they're too small," Werner added.

Estrella del Mar has also teamed up with Sun Country Airlines to offer a new non-stop flight from Denver to Mazatlan. The new service will operate once a week on Wednesdays, from January 24, to March 7, 2018. The resort is also now included in Sun Country Airlines Minneapolis–Mazatlan-Minneapolis Charter Program which started in mid-November 2017 and runs through mid-April 2018. Estrella del Mar's Golf packages start at $499 for two people and include accommodations, two 18-hole rounds of golf with shared cart rental and range balls per person, welcome margaritas and round-trip airport/hotel transportation for two guests.
