

Eva L. Shaw of Make Life Happen to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, CANADA, February 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eva L. Shaw is a powerful woman who is many things: a Registered Clinical Counselor, a marriage counselor, a self-sabotage coach, the holder of Master's and PhD degrees, and a professional who treats those impacted by sexual or physical abuse. She is also a respected contributor, the recipient of numerous awards and accolades, and the genius behind the Make Life Happen approach.

She lives and practices in Canada, and has over 25 years of experience in clinical counseling and coaching. Eva L. Shaw is also just like the butterfly that has become her symbol: associated with beautiful transformations, movement and finding one's wings.

The butterfly was one of several inspirations that prompted her forthcoming book, The Butterfly Flies, and a lovely blue one appears on its cover. Ms. Shaw's latest book is a loose memoir, comprised of 12 chapters that highlight her life experiences, and let clients know she has lived through it all, too.

"Each day we have a choice, enjoy the day, be miserable, be angry. Once a minute goes by we can never retrieve it...Steer your day for good memories...Use circumstances to your advantage."

These motivational words appeared in the blog pages of Ms. Shaw's Make Life Happen website (www.makelifehappen.info) The mission of the Make Life Happen Center is to teach, counsel, treat and coach those who believe that personal growth is important for spiritual, emotional and physical wellness.

Make Life Happen and all of Ms. Shaw's approaches help individuals examine where they are, how they got to this place, and how to move forward. She doesn't claim to be the be-all, end-all solution; rather a type of coach who escorts people a few paces ahead.

Ms. Shaw has waged a life-long battle with Diabetes and was honored with an award from the Joslin Diabetes Research Center. She often works with persons facing chronic illness and grieving families, applying her special insights. Aside from the book, one of her newest ventures is as an Internet Education Professional, which is a revolutionary on-line training concept. Ms. Shaw reaches patients in various settings that include a stunning office with a fireplace (but not the iconic couch), at seminars, and now via phone or webcam.

Ms. Shaw is also a Christian and starts each day with a reading from her Book of Devotions. Faith plays a big part in her marriage work too. There is much to know about her life, her achievements, her volunteer work and singular approaches like Make Life Happen. So, please pick up a copy of Eva L. Shaw's book, available on Amazon.com in late February, visit her website www.MakeLifeHappen.info, and tune into her radio show for more insights.

CUTV News Radio will feature Eva L. Shaw of Make Life Happen in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on February 9th at 3:00pm EST.
