Penta El Zero M and The Great Muta Emerge Victorious; "The Whole F'N Show" Rob Van Dam Interrupts the Celebration

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, January 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On a night that could only be described as electric, PCW ULTRA Champion, Penta El Zero M, and the Japanese legend, The Great Muta, defeated Johnny Ultra and Sami Callihan in the main event of PCW ULTRA "Anniversary 2K18" in Wilmington, CA.

The match began with Ultra (formerly known as John Hennigan) and Callihan both announcing to the crowd that they "put PCW ULTRA on the map", only to be interrupted by guitarist, Nita Strauss, who played Penta's entrance music, as the champion and the legend made their way to the ring with the capacity crowd on its feet. The match, which was back and forth, saw Muta deliver his patented dragon screw legwhip to both opponents, and hit Ultra with a fire ball and Callihan with the green mist. In the end, Muta hit Ultra with his shining wizard, and Penta followed a devastating package piledriver for the victory.

Penta's victory celebration and salute to the fans was cut short as the lights went out and Strauss, who was once again playing Penta's music, stopped and began to play "The Walk". The crowd erupted as "The Whole F'N Show" Rob Van Dam made his way to the ring. Van Dam, who is a former PCW ULTRA Champion, congratulated Penta, and informed him that on March 16, at PCW ULTRA "TUFF LUCK", the two would do battle for the belt. The pair met once before for the title at "Clear the Way" in November of 2016, with Van Dam emerging victorious.

The event, which was sponsored by Chemical Guys, also saw:
