

Florida Corporate Whistleblower Center Now Urges an Employee of a Florida Contractor Violating Davis Bacon Prevailing Wage Laws to Call About What could be a Significant Whistleblower Reward

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, February 1, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Florida Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "We are urging an employee of a highway, building contractor or company that is involved in providing services to the federal government anywhere in Florida to call us anytime at 866-714-6466 if their employer is not paying mandated Davis Bacon prevailing wage to their employees. The reward potential for this specific type of information can be significant. The catch is the employer must be misrepresenting what they are paying their employees to the government."

What might a Davis Bacon Act Violation look like:

"Let's say we have a highway contractor or a general contractor working on a federally funded job. The hypothetical company has 100 employees that are laborers. The prevailing wage for the area where the work is being done is $25 per hour-as per the Davis Bacon Act. The job will last for 15 months and during this time the laborers are all working 40-hour work weeks. In this scenario a laborer should be making $1000 per week or $4000 per month if they are making $25 per hour. However, if the laborer is only being paid $17.50 per hour they will be making $700 per month. This is a $300 difference. If we multiply the $300 difference X 100 (the number of laborers) the total is $30,000 per week or $120,000 per month X 15 months equals $1,800,000.

Simple rules for a whistleblower from the Florida Corporate Whistleblower Center: Do not go to the government first if you are a potential whistleblower with substantial proof of wrongdoing. The Florida Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "Major whistleblowers frequently go to the government thinking they will help. It's a huge mistake. Do not go to the news media with your whistleblower information. Public revelation of a whistleblower's information could destroy any prospect for a reward. Do not try to force a company/employer or individual to come clean about significant Medicare fraud, overbilling the federal government for services never rendered, multimillion dollar state or federal tax evasion, or a Florida based company falsely claiming to be a minority owned business to get preferential treatment on federal or state projects. Come to us first, tell us what type of information you have, and if we think it's sufficient, we will help you with a focus on you getting rewarded."
