

B&H WORLDWIDE WINS BRITISH INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT ASSOCIATION (BIFA) AWARD FOR SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT SERVICES

LONDON, ENGLAND, January 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- B&H Worldwide, named best-in-class aerospace logistics company has won this year's British International Freight Association (BIFA) award for Supply Chain Management Services. In front of an audience of leading players from across the multi-modal logistics industry, the submission from B&H which show-cased its unique service offering was chosen by a panel of industry experts as this year's winner.

The UK headquartered company, which has become the market-leader of aerospace logistics services entered the awards for the first time in 2017 and had two entries shortlisted with one triumphing.

Receiving the trophy from celebrity host Levi Roots was B&H's CEO, Stuart Allen.

“

I am very proud of my teams around the world who thoroughly deserve this award.”

Stuart Allen, B&H Worldwide Group CEO.

Speaking about the win Allen said: "This win is a tremendous testament to our whole team's effort, not just in the UK but all those who work in our aerospace hubs around the world. We believe that aerospace logistics is a highly specialist business which needs dedicated individuals to provide service levels which other companies struggle to meet. I am very proud of my teams around the world who thoroughly deserve this award".
