

Write About Travel and Earn a Scholarship from Reservation Counter

Applications are open for the $1,500 spring scholarship, recognizing students for community service and inspiring travel experiences

LEHI, UTAH, USA, January 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Reservation Counter, a leading online hotel accommodation provider, today announced that applications are now open for its $1,500 spring semester scholarship. For the spring and fall semesters, Reservation Counter awards a general scholarship to students who are passionate about travel and giving back to their communities. College students who love to travel are invited to apply for the scholarship.

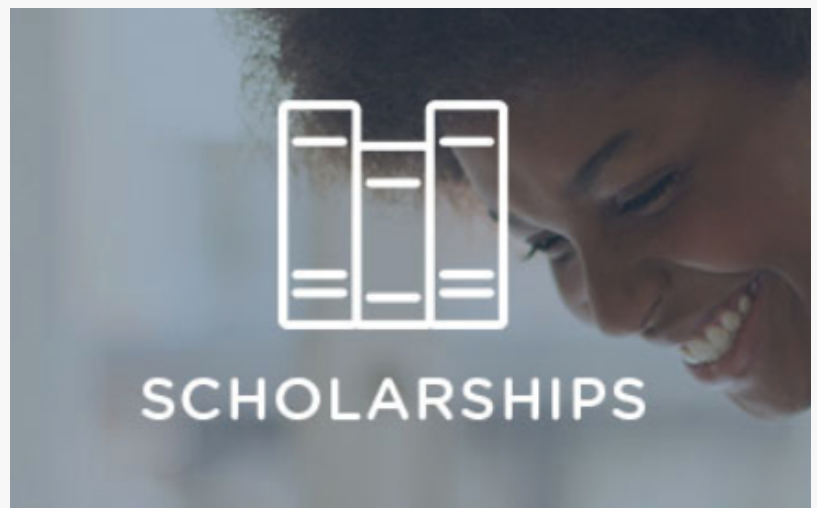

The three-question application encourages students to describe their extra-curricular activities, particularly community service, and how a favorite travel destination has been inspirational. The spring application period is open until May 31. This is the fourth consecutive year that Reservation Counter has awarded scholarships, with past winners attending schools in Arizona, Colorado and Massachusetts.

Reservation Counter helps travelers access more than a million hotel properties and accommodations worldwide. For more information about the Reservation Counter Scholarship and to apply, visit www.reservationcounter.com/scholarships.
