Learn in 7 days how Bitcoins, Altcoins, Blockchain and ICOs work

Cryptocurrencies and ICOs are now experiencing an incredible boom. It is our vision to reduce the complexity of the subject and make this dynamic development understandable for everyone.”

Florian Kandler, Co-Founder of Cryptario.

What exactly are Bitcoins, Altcoins and what are the differences between each currency? How does the blockchain technology work? From which amount on does it still make sense to invest in Bitcoins? What is an ICO and can it really finance a company? How does the tax system work for cryptocurrencies?

During the Cryptario Online Summit these questions and many more will be answered by the international crypto scene's top experts. In just 7 days, the summit participants will learn how Bitcoins, other digital cryptocurrencies and the underlying blockchain technology work and how it is best possible to invest in them. Additionally, the experts explain how to use an Initial Coin Offering (ICO) to raise funds for a startup or company and how everyone can participate in an ICO.

In personal interviews with Cryptario's host Dr. Florian Kandler, world-renowned experts not only reveal insider tips and tricks on the subject, but also give an outlook on the great financial potential of digital means of payment in the form of cryptocurrencies and their future development. Participants in the Cryptario Online Summit have the opportunity to experience valuable specialist knowledge on cryptocurrencies combined with hands-on tips on how to apply it in the real world – from the comfort of their own homes.

Among the Summit speakers you will find these experts (and many more):

Stephen DeMeulenaere (CAN), has been developing and helping to implement alternative currencies in various regions of the world for more than 25 years. In his talk he explains why crypto-currencies in particular have helped the development of "alternative currencies" and what the risks of current cryptocurrencies are.

David Siegel (US/UK/CH) has successfully raised over 20 million with an ICO himself. He is the author of an insider report widely used in the scene, the "ICO Handbook". He also speaks on conferences worldwide and reveals the difference between good and bad ICOs. Thus, it highlights the opportunities and risks of ICOs - both for investors and for startups.

Oliver Völkel (AT) is a specialized lawyer for ICOs in German-speaking countries and has accompanied all top ICOs in Austria. He and his law firm are the reason why Austria is already being discussed as a "good country" for ICOs. In his interview with Cryptario he explains possible tax and regulatory traps and their potentials.

Philipp Giese (GER) is chief analyst for cryptocurrencies at BTC-Echo, the major German Crypto News platform. He gives insights into how to analyze cryptocurrency prices, charts and how to interpret the current sharp decline in the bitcoin price.

Other interview guests include: bestselling author, TV star and ICO veteran Marco Robinson (UK), legal expert and insider on the prevention of crypto-fraud Dimitrios Vourakis (UAE), the professional ICO investor and insider Henok "Hen" Tekle (USA), government adviser and legal expert Artem Afian (UA), and 12 other experts from around the world.

The virtual conference provides an ideal opportunity for anyone to immediately jump into the subject of cryptocurrencies and use the acquired knowledge to gain the information advantage crucial for this technology's successful use.

Even for people who already have knowledge on the subject, the Cryptario online conference offers considerable added value. Top experts from the crypto world are sharing their insider knowledge exclusively for conference participants and will also give insight to their personal expert opinion on the subject of stock price development, future trends and investment opportunities.

The Cryptario Online Conference will take place from February 10 to 16, 2018 as a 7-day online event and currently anticipates more than 25,000 participants. Currently, there is a possibility to register for a free ticket (regular ticket price: 197 Euros). With the free ticket, the expert interviews are available for 24 hours. For those who want to deepen their knowledge of cryptocurrencies with unlimited access to expert interviews including bonus material, there is also an extensive conference package available.
