A website gives your business the potential for global exposure. Websites should be intuitive, responsive and easy to use on any device, engage visitors with relevant content, and rank high in search engine results. Lilo's team of web development specialists work with established businesses across many sectors to help them achieve their online objectives and goals.

Using powerful open source platforms such as Magento or WordPress, Lilo can turn an eCommerce website into an online shopping destination. These platforms can boost sales, expand markets and are appropriate for businesses of any size - from small start-ups to larger-scale corporations. Magento and WordPress are incredibly flexible, allowing businesses to customise, report and adapt to emerging trends. Businesses and entrepreneurs can easily operate any size eCommerce endeavour, and increase their online visibility with Lilo's in-house Digital marketing and SEO services.

Our most recent eCommerce projects include complete solutions for Osborne & Little - <https://www.osborneandlittle.com> , Cartwright & Butler- <https://www.cartwrightandbutler.co.uk> and Zyliss UK - <http://www.zyliss.co.uk>

For those who want an easy-to-use platform for their website, the London web development agency offers WordPress for simple content management. Utilising popular plugins such as Yoast, your new website will be SEO-friendly. By harnessing the power of WordPress, it can be used to build anything from blogs, corporate websites, to eCommerce solutions (by using plugins such as Woo-commerce).

Lilo offers complete digital marketing solutions that complement their web development services. This includes social media management, email marketing, and pay-per-click (PPC) advertising campaigns with Google AdWords.

To grow your digital presence organically, Lilo employs customised search engine optimisation (SEO) strategies to benefit your unique business. They blend creative and technical elements to improve your site rankings, drive traffic, and increase overall awareness in search engines.

Lilo delivers brand-boosting strategies that effectively present the client's message while increasing awareness among potential.

The new Lilo website provides a portal into one of London's most well-known digital agencies. Lilo specialises in WordPress, Magento, Drupal and bespoke web solutions to meet the needs and goals of their clients.
