

Chinese New Year on a Yacht

Chinese New Year customers are welcoming the year of the dog with a charter yacht!

MARINA DEL REY, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, February 1, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In honor of the year of the dog, OnBoat has opened up new ports for yachts in Sydney, curated a selection of Barcelona boat hires, and beefed up its Los Angeles yacht and Hawaii boating fleets. According to Marc Andelman, Co-founder of OnBoat, “chartering a yacht is especially appropriate this Chinese new year, due to the time honored tradition of naming experienced sailors as sea dogs”.

OnBoat Inc (<http://onboat.co>), the Los Angeles based boat sharing online platform, is introducing its boating clientele to the world’s finest boats. According to Kevin Wang, OnBoat’s president, the company became a leading US yacht charter booking platform, growing quickly in 2 years to serve thousands of customers weekly. “Our secret of success is an extremely simple booking process, straightforward costs, and no hidden fees” according to Marc Andelman.

In time for Chinese New Year Onboat has expanded its service coverage to overseas destinations, including Australia, Barcelona yachts, and the Baleric Islands yachting paradise of Mallorca and Ibiza.

“We carefully cherry pick the best yachts and most reliable local service providers, and personally visit the boats, to make sure our charter fleet offers great value”, said Kevin Wang. OnBoat’s Australia offerings include boats for every style and taste, starting from a 4 hour all -inclusive sailboat charter package for less than USD 400, to a brand new 122 footer luxury mega yacht for high end events. Great yachts to celebrate Chinese New year, and, any other occasion, are exemplified by Onboat’s Sydney yacht hire page, and their Brisbane yachts for hire.
