KNOWING WHAT'S MOST IMPORTANT

Winfield, AL - Within that pages of Dr. C. Todd Fetter's new book, The One Things: A Heartwarming Story About What's Most Important, ($13.49, paperback, 9781545619674; $6.99, e-book, 9781545621875) readers will find a children's fictional story based on biblical truths that illuminates the "one things" every Christian should weave into his or her life. The heartwarming story follows the sudden news that beloved Grandpa Ed, who always told adventurous stories to the local children, is in the hospital. The five children who visit him learn important lessons from the Bible that will impact their lives forever.

Parents will enjoy using this book to show their children valuable teachings for living biblically, standing up for what is right, being true to themselves, and living our God's Word.

"Each emerging generation is the perpetuation of essential Christian experience, and they deserve to know what we know," states the author. "I believe we honor and serve them best by investing in them, solid biblical truths that teach them what's most important."
