Alongside our sponsors, we want our Veteran Business Owners to save the date and not miss out on any opportunities,” said Keith King, President of NVBDC.

Upcoming events include the Keeping the Promise Business Expo on May 7-May 9th in San Diego, California. In partnership with the U.S. Veterans Business Alliance (USVBA), the two-day event presents opportunities for Veteran Business Owners to interact with representatives from major corporations and have access to Supplier Diversity

Managers.

Other opportunities for the corporations and Veteran Business Owners to interact include NVBDC's 4th Annual Golf Outing on June 29th which will again be held at Selfridge ANG Base in Harrison Township, Michigan.

On July 19th, NVBDC will host the 3rd Annual Doing Business with Federal Reserve and Private Industry. Including educational and matchmaking sessions, NVBDC is hosting alongside the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. After a very successful event in 2017, NVBDC looks forward to helping provide greater opportunities for SD/VOBS, with access to participants and their Supplier Diversity Programs.

NVBDC's National event, the Veteran Business Matchmaker and Vets Night Out will be held once again in Detroit at the Motor City Casino Hotel on September 10-11th. Based on our Veteran Business Owners increased attendance and enthusiastic support, 2017 proved to be our best event yet. As a result, NVBDC plans on facilitating more education sessions and Business matchmaking opportunities for our 2018 event.

As our list of certified SD/VOBs and new sponsors continues to grow, we will be in New York City on November 7th. NVBDC is also proud to announce JP Morgan Chase will be hosting our first ever Northeast Veteran Business Development Conference to be held at JP Morgan Chase's location in Brooklyn, aligning Veteran Business Owners with corporations.
