THE PEOPLE'S VOICE

At Saffren & Weinberg, Attorney Jeffrey Schaffer handles cases involving personal injury, social security disability, wrongful death, medical malpractice, property damage, and product liability.

Every year, tens of thousands of people are injured due to defective products.”

Ken Saffren, Partner

Recently, Jeff Schaffer helped a client resolve a case involving a defective wheelchair. The client was assisting a recreational aid, transporting an individual out of her home in a wheelchair in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The locking mechanism for the handle of the wheelchair failed and collapsed causing the wheelchair to fall onto the client's foot. The client was a 63-year-old female who resided by herself and suffered a fracture to her foot, requiring surgery. Jeff Schaffer filed a lawsuit against the supplier of the wheelchair and manufacturer alleging that the wheelchair handles were defectively designed and installed.

Every year, tens of thousands of people are injured due to defective products. Jeffrey Schaffer is no stranger to these types of cases.

After the client sustained her injury, she reached out to Saffren & Weinberg where Attorney Schaffer was happy to take on the case. He was able to resolve the case in mediation prior to trial and the client was granted a settlement award of $725,000.
