Everything is magic; everything is real! Have you well prepared for the upcoming wars? Come on! In the name of exploration and fight to expand territory, build Halo, repel rebels, and collect equipment. Who's gonna organize the invincible army, and invite like-minded allies to be the final King? Never lose an opportunity of playing this game if you prefer RPG+SLG!

Diverse PVE gameplay is to broaden your outlook!

Don't hesitate to join us even if you are a peace-loving player. Won't you feel cheerful and excited when you raid Base of Rebels, attack Elite Rebels, explore Ancient Relic, plunder Armory, defeat invaders, and siege Diamond Fairy? Different from traditional pay-to-play online games, Imperial Ambition provides common players with much broader space: As a common player, you are able to get ALL the resources as well as items in this game for FREE. Besides, by exploring the world map to the fullest, you have access to the BEST equipment, which is UNAVAILABLE even for a Fee. What's more, both Hero and Equipment can be evolved so as to make up a unique elite force.

Brand-new territory occupation gameplay shows you uniqueness!

Newly added Prestige makes occupation much more important and meaningful. Territory occupation helps values grow, and also brings in Prestige, whose magic plays a crucial role in production, development as well as fight. Don't you think it's an exclusive benefit for resource enthusiast? Besides the self-sufficiency on your territory, you can also build Halo, extra increasing resources income and enhancing Prestige effects. For the sake of rapid growth, you'd better survey resources distribution in advance, and work out proper layout to take a full advantage of Halo. You can also complete Camp building instantly with the help of magic on allies' territory, which is different from traditional SLG. In this way, you are able to support your allies or complete raid immediately.

Classic war strategy features are reaching their full potential!

In Kingdom War, Capital is located in the center of ancient battlefield, in the middle of the world map. In order to finally reach Capital, all the Alliances have to occupy the tiles, paving the road to the hegemony. In the ancient battlefield, there are mysterious Totem and Tower, vital to reach Capital, making war strategies in Kingdom War changeable. How to map out strategies, win victory and who's gonna seize the throne, just remain to be seen!
