

Active Risk Manager Global Conference tour – dates released

MAIDENHEAD, BERKSHIRE, UK, February 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sword Active Risk, a supplier of specialist risk management software and services, has announced the dates for its 2018 Active Risk Manager (ARM) Global Conference series. A major event in the Risk Management calendar, the conferences are open to anyone from the risk community, as well as users of ARM. The tour kicks off in Washington DC, September 19 – 20, then moves to The Dorchester, London on 18 October, and concludes in Sydney, Australia on 1 November.

As well as ARM customers, we welcome anyone involved in Risk and Opportunity management including our growing network of Risk Consultants.”

Keith Ricketts, VP of Global Marketing at Sword Active Risk

Keith Ricketts, VP of Global Marketing at Sword Active Risk commented; “The ARM Global Conference series has grown in popularity in the five years that we have been running it, and it is a testament to our continued commitment to the Risk Management community. As well as ARM customers, we welcome anyone involved in Risk and Opportunity management including our growing network of Risk Consultants. Each conference includes a range of industry speakers, ARM customer presentations, and How to... sessions. We will be announcing some very impressive Key Note Speakers in the next few weeks, and will be publishing outline agendas after that.”
