

Sales from John Moran's March 12th auction in Monrovia, California will benefit The Foundation for Appraisal Education

John Moran Auctioneers will conduct an auction to benefit The Foundation for Appraisal Education on Monday, March 12, at 12 noon Pacific time, live and online.

MONROVIA, CALIF., UNITED STATES, February 14, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MONROVIA, Calif. – John Moran

Auctioneers announces it will conduct an auction to benefit The Foundation for Appraisal Education on Monday, March 12th, at 12 noon Pacific time, live and online. All sales will benefit the Foundation's efforts to fund scholarships and educational events dedicated to personal property appraising. Items to be auctioned include paintings, silver, jewelry and glass. John Moran Auctioneers is located at 145 East Walnut Street in Monrovia.

Whether you're new to the field or a seasoned professional, we believe the pursuit of appraisal education is a worthy endeavor to support."

Katy Alexander

"Moran's is honored to hold this special auction event and believes strongly in the Foundation's mission to raise funds for scholarship," said Jeffrey Moran, Senior Vice President of John Moran Auctioneers. "As a special incentive, shipping will be provided gratis and all lots will be sold to the highest bidder without reserve. Full color catalogues will be available to attendees for free, courtesy of Treasures Estate Concierge Services."

The Foundation for Appraisal Education (FAE) is a not-for-profit organization that was formed to promote the advancement of education related to personal property appraising. Its mission is to raise funds and award scholarships to those seeking to improve their knowledge in the field of personal property appraising. As a not-for-profit organization, FAE welcomes all appraisers to become a member or apply for a scholarship.

"Whether you're new to the field or a seasoned professional, we believe the pursuit of appraisal education is a worthy endeavor to support," said Katy Alexander, President of the Foundation for Appraisal Education. "To fund all of these important programs, the FAE accepts tax deductible donations from groups and individuals as well as corporate donations and sponsorships." To learn more about scholarships and how to donate, visit foundationforappraisaleducation.org.

Some of the items in the John Moran Auctioneers 89-lot auction will include the following:

- A late 19th or early 20th century Continental tantalus (lockable case or stand holding decanters of alcoholic beverages), with crystal decanters, rectangular with a serpentine front, with two dual-tiered

FOUNDATION FOR APPRAISAL EDUCATION

The FAE is a not-for-profit formed to promote the advancement of education related to personal property appraising.

racks holding a total of sixteen cordials (est. $300-$500).

- A 20th century Cambodian pumpkin-form betel / trinket box, topped by a stem with protruding leaf and flower, each lobed side chased and repousse-decorated with scrolling vines, 5 ½ inches tall and weighing a total of 13.330 troy ounces (est. $300-$500).

- An Italian sapphire brooch, 18kt yellow gold set with sixteen single-cut sapphires and three single-cut diamonds, measuring 1.5 inches square, 16.9 grams (est. $400-$600).

- A wide circular bowl with copper rope base by Emilia Castillo (20th century, Taxco, Mexico), with rim and lily pad-form handles topped with silver-plated frogs, hand-hammered, made from verdigris patinated and polished copper (est. $600-$900).

- A pastel on paper under glass artwork by Mary Silverwood (N.M., 1932-2011), titled Cottonwoods, depicting trees in a landscape, signed lower right (est. $300-$500).

Bidders can preview the catalog at <https://www.johnmoran.com/upcoming-auctions/20180312-1/20180312-1>.

Online bidding will be available March 12th. Phone and absentee bids will also be accepted. Previews will be held Friday, March 9th, from 10-4; Saturday, March 10th, from 10-2; Sunday, March 11th, from 6:30-9:30 pm (preview party, please RSVP); and March 12th, from 10 am-noon. All times are Pacific. Internet bidding is by LiveAuctioneers.com and Invaluable.com.

The Foundation for Appraisal Education was originally formed as the ISA Education Foundation under Illinois law and was granted non-profit status in 2003. In 2008, the name was changed to the Foundation for Appraisal Education (it has no affiliation with the Appraisal Foundation, a Congressionally authorized not-for-profit that also services the appraisal industry). The FAE's sole mission is to promote the advancement of education related to personal property appraising.

Late 19th or early 20th century Continental tantalus, with two dual-tiered racks holding a total of 16 cordials (est. $300-$500).

Italian sapphire brooch, 18kt yellow gold set with 16 single-cut sapphires and three diamonds (est. $400-$600).

The FAE began awarding scholarships in 2004 and today presents four scholarships of $1,000 each, two scholarships of $500 each, plus $1,000 to one selected candidate in memory of Gloria Moroni. Grants for group educational opportunities, such as underwriting educational speakers for the ISA annual conference, are awarded by the FAE. Appraisers and friends of appraisers can now join the Foundation for Appraisal Education and support the Foundation's ongoing work.

To fund these programs, the FAE accepts memorials and gifts from groups and individuals, as well as corporate donations and sponsorships. The group is headquartered 225 West Wacker Drive, Suite 650, Chicago. To learn more please visit www.foundationforappraisaleducation.org.

##

Courtney Christy
The Foundation for Appraisal Education
(404) 219-9705
email us here

Wide circular bowl with copper rope base by Emilia Castillo (20th c., Taxco, Mexico), hand-hammered (est. $600-$900).

Pastel on paper under glass artwork by Mary Silverwood (N.M., 1932-2011), titled Cottonwoods (est. $300-$500).

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2018 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.