Two Hearts, One Grand!

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON, USA, February 17, 2018. For nearly a decade, multi-award winning pianist Lynn Yew Evers has been sharing her musical gifts - as teacher, composer, soloist and collaborator - with her growing family of friends and fans. Her music charts her journey, from growing up in Malaysia to beginning a new life of hope in America.

Drawing upon her classical training, and refined sense of melody, Lynn Yew Evers has earned her the praise and admiration of her peers; Grammy-Award Winning guitarist and producer Will Ackerman writes: "Her music is like a walk through the most beautiful garden you've ever imagined; her compositions imbued with profound emotion and grace."

For Lynn, making music with others comes as naturally as breathing, and in 2012 as she was preparing for the release of her new CD, "Dawn of Peace", an idea took root in Lynn's heart: to bring together other like-minded artists and present a shared concert of contemporary piano music. From this inspiration Two Hearts, One Grand! became a beautiful reality!

For her new series, Lynn will be performing with two extraordinary artists, Radmilla Neal and Heidi Breyer. The tour kicks off on March 2nd, 2018, when Lynn will be joined by Radmilla Neal for a pair of concerts in Encinitas and Pacific Beach.

Classically trained as a pianist, Ms. Neal is also an accomplished composer, arranger, teacher and accompanist. In demand as a performer, her artistry is praised for its expressive elegance and evocation of classical sophistication and grace.

On March 16, 17 and 18, Lynn meets up with multi-ZMR Award Winning artist Heidi Breyer. A master tone poet, and musical story teller, Ms. Breyer's artistry embraces a wide range of collaborative projects with other artists and ensemble as well as multi-media and film.

You will not want to miss Two Hearts, One Grand! Hearing these gifted women in performance together with enchant, inspire and uplift you!
