

The Official O-Shots® and P-Shots® Are Now Available in Montreal

Dr. Andrew Steinberg is a certified provider of the O-Shot® and P-Shot® in Montreal and the province of Quebec.

MONTREAL, QUEBEC, CANADA ,
February 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The revolutionary, non-surgical solution to urinary and sexual dysfunction, is now available to Montreal patients. The PRP Therapy, known as the P-Shot® (Priapus Shot®) for men and O-Shot® (Orgasm Shot®) for women, is a groundbreaking medical treatment that improves and restores sexual and urinary functions. Evolved from what has come to be commonly known as the Vampire Facelift®, PRP injections consist of a serum made from the patient's own blood platelets, injected into the penis or vaginal tissues.

What is the O-Shot®?

The O-Shot® (or Orgasm Shot®) is a vaginal treatment that can stimulate and rejuvenate vaginal and clitoral tissues, enhancing sexual and urinary functions. The treatment is quick, virtually painless, and with minimal risks. Reported benefits include:

- An increase in sexual desire, vaginal lubrication, sensitivity and pleasure
- A significant improvement and even a cure for urinary incontinence
- A decrease in pain during intercourse
- An improved ability to have a vaginal orgasm

What is the P-Shot®?

The P-Shot® (or Priapus Shot®) is a simple injection that can stimulate sexual function and essentially treat erectile dysfunction. This revolutionary treatment provides long-lasting results that cannot be achieved with other more traditional procedures, such as drugs or creams. Virtually painless and with minimal risks, P-Shot® treatments have been reported to:

An Official Provider for Quebec Patients

Dr. Andrew Steinberg has completed degrees in Chemical Engineering, Medicine, and Urology at McGill University, as well as at the prestigious Cleveland Clinic in the United-States, where he mastered various techniques in minimally invasive surgery. A part-time associate member of the McGill Division of Urology and the recipient of several honors and awards, he is also the founder of a private urology practice located in the heart of Montreal. A true expert in his field, Dr. Steinberg was also the first Quebec practitioner to complete a certification from the Cellular Medicine Association, making him the first official provider of the Priapus Shot® and the Orgasm Shot® for the province of Quebec.

The groundbreaking medical treatment that took the world by surprise is now offered in over 40 countries around the world. It has received tremendous media attention and its outstanding results continue to amaze. We are glad that Dr. Steinberg has brought the O-Shot® and P-Shot® procedures to Quebec, and we look forward to find-out what other innovative treatments he will provide to his patients next.
