VERO BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, February 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kristy Langelo joined the team at ServiceMaster by Glenn's in January of 2014. She was hired as the Office Manager and Disaster Coordinator for the Vero Beach location. Aside from her day-to-day office duties, she also assists in coordinating & dispatching disaster and recovery services, acting as a liaison between customers and their Insurance companies, organizing & disseminating information to our Emergency Response Team, and supervising all of the administrative activities that facilitate the smooth running of the office.

Keith Grella, owner of ServiceMaster By Glenn's, states "Although Kristy had no prior experience working in Disaster Restoration & Catastrophe Emergencies, we quickly learned that her previous work experience proved to be an unexpected asset to our company. Kristy is a retired Crime Scene Investigator for the Vero Beach Police Department, and a previous 911 dispatcher. With her 7 years in Law Enforcement, along with prior Supervisor and Accounting experience, Kristy proved that she could handle just about any stressful or high-pressure situation. That is definitely a trait that we needed in a leader for our team!"
