Showtime Auction Services will hold its first big auction event of 2018 at a new venue and with new show dates. The auction will be held April 20, 21 and 22.

BELLEVILLE, MICH., UNITED STATES, February 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BELLEVILLE, Mich. – Showtime Auction Services will hold its first big auction event of 2018 at a new venue and with new show dates. The auction will be held the weekend of April 20th, 21st and 22nd, about three weeks later than usual, at the Wayne County Fairgrounds, located at 10871 Quirk Road in Belleville, Mich.

Belleville is located east of Ann Arbor (the site of Showtime Auction Services' previous auctions), right off Interstate 94 only about 5 minutes from the airport (DTW). The auction will be headlined by the lifetime collections of Thomas and Gloria Terry, who amassed a diverse mix of merchandise over the course of many years. More than 50 antique categories will be in the sale. Internet bidding will be facilitated by LiveAuctioneers.com and Invaluable.com.

"Typically, we feature one or two major collections in an auction, with the main emphasis on one area of collecting, but that's not the case with this sale," said Mike Eckles of Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven, Mich. "I kind of like that our very first sale in our new location will feature items that will appeal to a wide range of collectors in many collecting categories."
