

T3 Aviation Group successfully “restarts” a Regional Airline

T3 completes a six-month contract to realign and restructure a regional airline and exceeds clients expectations

BANGKOK, THAILAND, February 28, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- T3

successfully completed the reorganization and restructuring of a regional airline that was in a state of stagnation and non-compliance. T3 restructured the company in line with industry best practices and implemented robust safety and quality initiatives to bring the carrier into compliance with ICAO and IOSA standards. “The client was seeking a redirection of the company to support the rapid growth of aviation in the region and we exceeded expectations. The T3 team has experience in company “re-starts” as well as start-ups and it is extremely rewarding to use our experience and expertise in the name of safety and efficiency” said Mark Thibault, Founder-Managing Director of T3 Aviation Group.
