N2N Services Inc. is now an Ellucian Alliance Partner

DULUTH, GEORGIA, USA, March 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- N2N Services, Inc., provider of Illuminate Platform, a unified platform for API integration, API creation and management, and API security, is pleased to announce its partnership with Ellucian Inc., the leading provider of software and services built to power higher education. As an alliance partner, N2N shares Ellucian's vision for standards based, turnkey and secure, enterprise application and data integration for every higher education institution. This partnership will allow Ellucian customers to quickly and easily implement integration strategies across their portfolio of systems.

> We are excited to join the growing network of Ellucian partners. We believe N2N's Illuminate platform will help higher education institutions achieve innovation and true interoperability."

> Kiran Kodithala, CEO and founder of N2N Services Inc.

Illuminate is the first ever API integration platform built specifically for higher education institutions. The Illuminate platform enables IT organizations to achieve the dream of true interoperability by leveraging a simple cloud-based approach to seamlessly integrating any SaaS (software-as-a-service), hosted, or on-premises application with any student information system (SIS), Mobile Application, Learning Management System (LMS), ERP and CRM applications or single sign-on environment.

"We are excited to join the growing network of Ellucian partners. We believe N2N's Illuminate platform will help higher education institutions achieve innovation and true interoperability. We are very confident that this collaboration will deliver great results to higher education customers looking for innovative, secure, and turnkey solutions for enterprise application and data integration. We look forward to working closely with Ellucian and their leadership to collaborate for the success of every educational institution in the world." Kiran Kodithala, Founder and CEO of N2N Services Inc.

N2N has been recognized by Gartner as a "Cool Vendor Leveraging Data in Education." N2N has also been identified in Gartner's Hype Cycle for Education as specializing in exostructure which "enables institutions to leverage industry (and other) best-practice services from the cloud, rather than having to bring them inside the campus walls."

N2N will be attending Ellucian Live, Ellucian's premier user conference, in San Diego, CA April 8th to April 11th, 2018. N2N will be providing demonstrations of the Illuminate platform from the booth #834 in the exhibit hall.
