

USG to Host the Second International Conference on Nursing Science & Practice in London from August 6-8, 2018

The Second International Conference on Nursing Science & Practice (Nursing Science-2018) will be held during August 6-8, 2018 in London, United Kingdom.

PLANO, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, March 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With the theme "Advancement of nursing science through research, practice and education", Nursing Science-2018 will take place from August 6-8, 2018 at Renaissance London Heathrow Hotel in London, hosted by United Scientific Group (USG).

This international gathering of hundreds of nurses will explore many ways in which nurses use research to provide evidence-based care that promotes quality health outcomes for individuals, families, communities and health care systems.

The conference will provide opportunities for nurses to build relationships and to disseminate nursing research, knowledge and leadership across various specialties, cultures and countries.

Following on from the success of Nursing Science 2017 in Dallas, TX, United States of America; which gathered over 200 nurses from 20 countries, this 2018 edition will feature high level keynote speakers, symposiums, workshops, concurrent sessions, posters and many networking opportunities.

Speakers include:

Janean E. Holden, University of Michigan School of Nursing, Michigan, USA
