As a pioneer in the African American Beauty Supply Business, Ken Williams is recognized as the “God Father” to many. He made sure the industry was consistently provided with the best products and continuing education for many decades. He considers excellent professional products, education and exposure, to be the keys to success. Ken has built a legacy for his family and loyal employees, a foundation to continue his vision for the future of Action.

This star-studded collection of Beauty Industry Leaders is designed to help give back to a community that is unfortunately, underserved. Help is needed to continue vital efforts to succeed in this important mission, purposed to bring awareness to the blind and visually impaired community. The goal for this event is to raise $10,000 in monetary donations and $5000 in proceeds from the silent auction. A portion of the proceeds will go to Insightful Visionaries. Through the support of community “visionaries”, organizers are optimistic that they will surpass their goals.

Carolyn Marshall Covington, “The Blind Beauty Visionary is an advocate for the blind & visually impaired, working to connect the community to the Beauty Industry. Mrs. Covington is a beauty pioneer who has dedicated over 30 years to the industry. Recently, she was diagnosed with Retinitis Pigmentosa, a degenerative eye disease that has caused her vision to be altered and inevitably will lead to total blindness. She founded Insightful Visionaries, a 501(c)3 nonprofit to empower persons with disabilities, inclusive of the blind and visually impaired.

Insightful Visionaries is also the development stage of a Wellness Center with accessible training and employment for persons with disabilities. The silent auction held during this event offers attendees an opportunity to make tax-deductible contributions to this worthy cause, by purchasing these items. All donors will receive a tax-deductible donation receipt from Insightful Visionaries Inc.
