

The Squires Group, Inc. Brings Back Jan Upton-Lloyd and Adds Drew Norris to the Resource Management Team

ANNAPOLIS, MD, UNITED STATES, March 8, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Squires Group, Inc. (TSGi) announced that Jan Upton-Lloyd has returned to The Squires Group and hired Drew Norris to the Resource Management Team.

Jan Upton-Lloyd, a native Californian, joined Nancy Squires, CEO of TSGi, and the fledgling Squires Group in 1996 as its first employee. She was TSGi's original bookkeeper while also supporting Nancy in recruiting and account management. Jan retired early in 2003, moving with her husband to the mountains of Western Maryland and from there, settled in Pennsylvania. Since 2005, Jan has been the owner of a seasonal antique store, River's Edge Antiques, in Confluence, PA. Jan recently re-joined The Squires Group to provide her depth and breadth of creativity and stellar communication skills to support the marketing and resource teams.

"I am very excited that Jan has returned to her roots at TSGi! As our first employee, Jan tackled anything and everything to support our fledgling company. Jan and I worked strategically, and very ERP-focused to grow the company, laying the foundation for future generations of employees to thrive at TSGi," says Nancy Squires, CEO of TSGi. "I am glad to have Jan working with us again. I am also very excited to announce that Drew Norris is the newest addition to our Resource Management Team," adds Ms. Squires.
