

IDLF Partners With Elevay To Offer Irish Investment Program In The Middle East.

This exciting new program invites investors to "Imagine a better life. In Ireland".

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, March 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Irish Diaspora Loan Fund (IDLF) have signed an exclusive agreement with Dubai-based citizenship by investment consulting firm Elevay to offer their government-approved fund as an important component of the Irish Immigration Program (IIP) in the Middle East.

The program provides investors with an outstanding opportunity to gain immediate permanent residence status for an investment in the fund of 1 million euros which is returned to the investor after a 5-year period has expired. For investors that actually take up residence in Ireland, there is a clear path to full citizenship in just over 5 years.

According to Ms. Joanna Murphy, CEO of the IDLF, "We knew that there would be a high level of interest in the program in the Middle East but as the premier investment option for this program it was important for us to find a partner with a similar high level of integrity as well as a wealth of experience in promoting CBI in this market. For these reasons, Elevay was our logical choice."

Elevay will be employing their considerable skills in digital marketing and public relations as well as their extensive referral network to reach high net worth prospects over the coming months. They are confident that the program will be highly successful.

Salma El Shurafa of Elevay added, "In what has increasingly become a retail-like passport market it is re-assuring to see a program like this emerge with more of a long-term immigration focus. Being able to guide people on the complex path to actually improving their lives has always been something that Elevay excels at and has developed an excellent reputation for."

Elevay will be conducting a series of formal information sessions about the program and is inviting all those interesting and qualified to attend. For more information please request an invitation via email to: ireland@elevay.com or telephone +971 142 827221.
