

MEET INTERNATIONAL SUPER MODEL AMY TAYLOR

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, March 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- You have probably seeing Amy on the covers of many magazines when you go to the kiosk. And we are sure you want to know more about her. Amy Taylor is a native Californian who received her undergraduate degree in Berkeley, MBA in Los Angeles, and commercial pilot's licenses in Arizona, while spending nearly most of her life working as a published model. In case this was not impressive enough, Amy Taylor is also a member of MENSA!

Brooke Mason

Miss Taylor has been the cover of magazines such as Maxim or Playboy (to mention a couple). Sports Illustrated named her Lovely Lady Of The Day, and Playboy Italy wanted to close 2017 featuring this super model in their December issue.

When she is not found in front of the camera, she is enjoying the sunny skies flying, keeping fit at her gym in Los Angeles, or at the beach playing with her dog. Eternally fiery she is of Italian and Hungarian ancestry; quite a mix, she has the sort of curves fantasies are made of (32D-25-35), but one of the things that makes her feel sexiest is taking her semi-automatic out for some marksmanship. She has traveled to 45 countries so far, and is eager to see more of the world! Travel is her only addiction.

The sexiest thing she can find in a man is intelligence, and the biggest turn offs are ignorance and selfishness.

She takes care of her beauty by trying not to fall asleep with makeup on, trying to eat somewhat healthfully, and using top-shelf skin and hair products. But most of her looks are just genetic luck. She does not focus too much on these looks in daily life. She has always known that they would fade someday, and that the inside of a person is sexier than any hot shell could ever be.

You will see more of Amy Taylor soon on many magazine covers to come.
