

FansFrenzy (FFZY.OTC) announces agreement with McMaster University in Hamilton

PLATTSBURGH, NEW YORK, USA, March 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- FansFrenzy Corporation (FFZY.OTC)

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y., March 13, 2018 – FansFrenzy Corporation wishes to inform its shareholders that it has signed a two year agreement with McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario. The agreement gives fansfrenzy.com a captive audience within the University sports environment. That captive audience can then be rewarded as they earn points for being active on the web portal and mobile application.

It will also give fansfrenzy.com unique content in which we will then showcase on our social platform, our mobile application and possibly to other media outlets. The University and the athletes benefit from that exposure as their images and videos go online where they can be viewed by their fans, their parents and the rest of the world. Both the web platform and the mobile application will give the University athlete much needed exposure through our blogs, vlogs, video clips and pictures. They will also give the fans/users an opportunity to earn points in which they can redeem by being active on the site.

Our goal is to enter into academic sports in a significant way and to give our audiences unique content that can only be found on fansfrenzy.com. We are excited to be breaking this new ground with McMaster University and setting a new standard in providing academic sports an alternative social media platform where both the athletes and the fans can express themselves all the while getting rewarded to do so.

Fansfrenzy.com will be sponsoring the 2018 U Sports Men's Volleyball Championship at McMaster University from March 16th to March 18th. We will be on the University grounds creating video content, pictures, vlogs, interviewing participants and posting them on fansfrenzy.com. This digital content will be unique and will also allow the visiting University fans to log on to our platforms, view the content and participate on the action.
