

Rosaline Marketing Agency Offers A New Package For Entrepreneurs

Today Rosaline Digital Marketing is launching a new digital marketing package for entrepreneurs and new businesses.

TORONTO, ON, CANADA, March 20, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today Rosaline Digital Marketing is launching a new digital marketing package for entrepreneurs and new businesses.

This package combines several digital marketing services and platforms, including social media for business, search engines optimization, email marketing, content marketing, and much more.

Rosaline Digital Marketing Company

This new package is targeted towards new business startups, or entrepreneurs looking to build their first business and gain leads and sales as fast as possible.

Company founder and digital marketing specialist, Anas Aldera, wants to help other new business owners succeed, and change the harsh business starting up reality for entrepreneurs and investors.

The surviving rate for new businesses is roughly 80% at the end of the first year. However, only 50% of all businesses survive after five years.

As an entrepreneur himself, Aldera was grateful for all and the knowledge he gained from a career in marketing and sales that he was able to build Rosaline Digital Marketing and website design company.

Now Aldera feels it's his turn to help other entrepreneurs achieve their dreams and build their own successful business.

“I wanted to share my experience with someone who really needed it. I have high hopes that my skills will help launch the companies of many businessmen and businesswomen.”

Currently, Rosaline only offers a low budget package for startups, but Aldera hopes to start a higher package that will help entrepreneurs and business owners secure leads and sales from day one using paid Ads on social media and search engines in the near future.
