

Travel The Globe This Passover Without Ever Leaving The Seder Table, Courtesy of Royal Wine

From New Tequilas & Vodka to Israeli Wines from an NBA-ALL STAR, Royal Wine Has Vintages for Every Taste & Price Range

BAYONNE, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, March 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This Passover, spend your holiday in Israel, Italy and France, without ever leaving the Seder table. NJ-based Royal Wine, the world's largest purveyor of kosher wines & spirits, offers Passover selections from across the globe – including a new label from NBA All Star Amare Stoudemire - in a broad range of tastes and prices.

“The kosher wine renaissance over the past two decades has led to more and more sophisticated options for Passover each year,” says Jay Buchsbaum, Executive VP, Marketing and Director of Wine Education at Royal Wine Corp. “2018 has been an exciting year for exceptional new releases from every major wine producing region in the world.” Even celebrities and sports stars are leveraging their name recognition to produce and sell wine.

Thirty-five-year-old former NBA All-Star Amare Stoudemire recently unveiled three varieties of Israeli wine whose labels bear his name, produced at the “Stoudemire Cellars” of Kfar Tikva in the Upper Galilee, imported and distributed by the Royal Wine Corp.

It's no surprise that many of today's kosher wines are winning international competitions in top award categories. Bottom line: there's no reason the quality of wine at your Seder can't stand up to a glorious meal and your best crystal goblets.

Royal has released a range of notable wines and spirits to fit virtually everyone's budget, from $5.00 to $500.00. This Passover, don't be plagued by kosher wine. Now those four cups can be something to be savored, not endured.
