

Pop Star Kamaria Tilley pledges proceeds from #neveragain2018 to Stoneman Douglas and Great Mills School Districts.

Socio-politically conscious teen songstress uses her talent to help victims of school shootings with song “#Never Again 2018”.

KALAMAZOO, MI, USA, March 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Teen Pop Super Star Kamaria Tilley may only be 16 years old, but being raised singing in church she developed a solid sense of right and wrong. This has always caused her to have strong opinions about social issues that affect her peer like the unfortunate incidents at both the Stoneman Douglas High School and Great Mills High School. To show her love and unrelenting support to those involved in these unfortunate incidents; Kamaria Tilley has released a single entitled, “#Never Again 2018”. The song is full of hope, promise of a better future and inspiration to find a better way to resolve conflicts among our peers by finding the things that make us similar as opposed to what makes us different. In addition, 100% of the proceeds from the sales of this single will be donated to the Broward County School District and the St. Mary’s County Public Schools to aid them in their heroic efforts.

Proceeds Support Stoneman Douglas High School and Great Mills High School

To help gain greater exposure and support for the cause, Kamaria and her team have started the #neveragain2018 campaign. The topics that the #neveragain2018 campaign intends to focus on are mindfulness, techniques on how to challenge negative thoughts, and they will attempt to create a conscious awareness of the transitional state of feelings and the importance of not making permanent decisions while in a temporary state. The campaign will utilize social media live, videos, literature, and various forms entertainment to convey this message #neveragain2018. RSE Content.
