

Rise Above! A Chicago Spring Break Event

Glen Lerner Gives Back and the Chicago Police Department's District 9 CAPS partner together to provide spring break activities for youth in Chicago.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS , US, March 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Glen Lerner Gives Back is partnering with the Chicago Police Department's District 9 CAPS to provide spring break activities for youth from local neighborhoods.

Are you concerned about how your child will spend their time over the upcoming break? Have your kids come out and spend spring break with Glen Lerner Injury Attorneys and the Chicago Police Department! Join us for Rise Above! An event that aims to guide youth in our community through recreation and inspiration. Kids ages 7-15 are invited to take part in this FREE event.

March 27-28, we will be at Chicago Indoor Sports & Razzmatazz, located at 3900 S. Ashland Ave., from 10am to 1:45pm. Then, on March 28th, we will have our roller skating party from 10:30am to 1:30pm at The Rink located at 1122 E. 87th St.

I am so proud to help the Chicago Police Department form positive, open connections. By working together, we can elevate the quality of life for the residents of our neighborhoods.”

Kids can look forward to additional recreation activities like arcade games, basketball, soccer, and inflatables. Each day will also have daily youth chats led by District 9 CAPS officers and Glen Lerner himself.

You must register to be part of this free event. For registration, call (312) 747-3501 (CAPS Office)

“Providing kids with structured environments during their free time is one of the keys to giving back to our neighborhoods. I am so proud to help the Chicago Police Department form positive, open connections between the local residents and police officers. By working together, we can elevate the quality of life for the residents of our neighborhoods,” said attorney Glen Lerner.
