

Capital Numbers Ranks #203 in the Financial Times APAC Top 1000

KOLKATA, INDIA, March 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Financial Times just released its APAC Top 1,000 rankings.

Tens of thousands of companies are evaluated, but only the top 1,000 are compiled into the final listing. Out of that listing, Capital Numbers ranked relatively high, coming in at #203.

This ranking is a list of 1,000 companies in the Asia-Pacific region. The methodology ranks companies by their compound annual growth in revenue measured between 2013 and 2016. To be included, companies must have brought in at least $100,000 in revenue in 2013, and at least $1m in 2016.

Companies from Australia, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Singapore, South Korea and Taiwan were invited to participate.

“

When we dedicate development or other services and skill sets to a business, we're empowering them to reach their goals according to specific needs.”

Mukul Gupta, Managing Director

Capital Numbers are no strangers to rankings of growth and achievement. They recently landed in the Deloitte Fast 50 and the publication "Leading SMEs of India 2017," published by Dun & Bradstreet. Although the company was founded in 2012, their speed of growth regularly places them in rankings alongside companies who have been around for much longer.

Co-founder and Managing Director Mukul Gupta, attributes the company's success to more than just speed.

"Capital Numbers is a company fundamentally dedicated to helping others", he said. "When we dedicate development or other services and skill sets to a business, we're empowering them to reach their goals according to specific needs. We do it in a process-focused, detail-oriented manner, so they get the best quality possible. So when we rank high on a list like this, we see a concrete reminder of the goals we've helped others achieve."
