

Aspect Furniture Delivers Office Furniture Solution for Catholic Education Offices

New Furniture Solution for Catholic Education Offices

CANBERRA, ACT, AUSTRALIA, March 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aspect Furniture has delivered a project for the Catholic Education offices, incorporating workspaces that encouraged greater interaction among all teams, as designed by Cox Architecture.

Following a tender submission, Aspect became the preferred supplier for Cox Architects and Hindmarsh — and was engaged to deliver a design solution within the allocated budget.

The project required a series of geometrical top shapes, which would join to create long benches throughout the office. Aspect used the contemporary Runway desk base system, with a dual tool rail fitted to the back edge of the desktop.

The final fitout incorporated the Zurich 5 sit-to-stand desks, Runway custom desks, Runway tables, and custom power reticulation solutions. The project was completed within the nominated timeline.

Client: Catholic Education Office

Location: Canberra

Architect: Cox Architects

Builder: Hindmarsh

Furniture included: Zurich 5 Sit/Stand Desking, plus custom desks and tables.
