Hoving Home

I am proud to sponsor an organization that dedicates itself to helping those find their spiritual, emotional and physical well-being.”

Glen Lerner

Since June 1967, the Hoving Home has been a place of hope for hundreds of women who reclaimed their lives from drug and alcohol abuse. This residential spiritually-based home remains a non-profit organization for women, 18 years and older, who have battled life's toughest challenges. Volunteers here have seen it all, from drug addiction, alcoholism, prostitution and so many other life-controlling problems. They help rebuild the broken lives and provide an atmosphere of hope, trust, support and most important of all, love. They have multiple locations, including one in the Las Vegas Valley, so your support goes directly to your community.

“I am proud to sponsor an organization that dedicates itself to helping those find their spiritual, emotional and physical well-being,” said attorney Glen Lerner. “The Hoving Home provides hope to those trapped in life-threatening situations.”
