Marc Weinberg, Partner

Attorney Jeff Schaffer concentrates his practice in areas such as motor vehicle accidents along with general personal injury, premises liability, slip and falls, construction, medical malpractice claims, and product liability.

Jeff Schaffer was recently able to help a victim receive compensation for her personal injuries that occurred as the result of a highly-contested motor vehicle accident matter. The defendant claimed that Schaffer's client traveled into his lane, causing the accident. However, the client claimed that the defendant traveled around a bus and into her lane, causing the accident.

Nearly 2.5 million people become injured or disabled each year due to a motor vehicle accident. It is crucial to seek and obtain justice for accident victims who have done no wrong of their own. Luckily, the victim reached out to Saffren & Weinberg to get representation for her injury.

Attorney Schaffer was successful with this case. The defendant's insurance agreed with the client's position and settled the case resulting in compensation for recovery of the client's injuries.
