

Young Christians from All Over the World Participate in the Pastor Chris Oyakhilome 2018 International Easter Youth Camp

One of Nigeria's most notable religious figures – Pastor Chris Oyakhilome is now taking part in the 2018 International Easter Youth Camp in South Africa.

LONDON, LONDON, UK, April 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One of Nigeria's most notable religious figures - Pastor Chris Oyakhilome is now taking a crucial part in the 2018 International Easter Youth Camp in Johannesburg, South Africa. The camp will continue for 8 days, starting March 29th and ending in April 5th. Hundreds of young Christians from every corner of the world are now attending the camp and grabbing the opportunity to participate in many educational and leisure activities. Not just that but they are enjoying lectures on various topics, visits to important places and moments of worship. Pastor Chris Oyakhilome is also there, greeting the attendees and spreading the word of God to the young believers.

The first photos from the International Easter Youth Camp are emerging and the organization are willing to share them with the media. On them, young Christians are holding the flags of their respective countries, while entering the camp. On the photos we can see young Christians from Kazakhstan, Russia, Georgia and more, representing their countries on the camp.

Pastor Chris Oyakhilome's 2018 International Easter Youth Camp has been successful so far in turning into a bigger event than the one from last year. The organization will prepare further updates, once the camp is over. Till then, viewers are encouraged to visit the official website: http://www.globalyouthleadersforum.org/iycwithpastorchris/
