

Memphis Rapper Dav Da Franchise Releases "Doin Me" Single

MEMPHIS, TN, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Memphis, Tennessee- Dav Da Franchise recently released a single that everyone will be chanting soon. The single, "Doin Me" was originally created in 2016 but didn't officially release until now. A lot of time and work went into creating the song. The rapper teamed up with Bizzle Beats for the sound that you hear on the track. Although there isn't an official music video yet, you can expect one in the near future. Dav Da Franchise plans to release a music video for fans very soon. This song is for those who like to stay to themselves and just do them. The lyrics are very catchy and relatable. In the song, he says, "I ain't never had a handout. I on do well with no favors." The 28-year-old rapper recalls starting rap at the age of 7. While most were outside playing with their bikes, Dav Da Franchise was polishing himself as a rapper. On the mainstream side, his inspirations are Chris Brown, Young Dolph, T.I, and Kevin Gates to name a few. You can expect a lot from Dav Da Franchise. He is working constantly to keep giving the fans quality content. He is currently working on songs that will feature on his upcoming EP titled, "A Long Way To Go." The rapper doesn't really like to compare himself to other local artists. Instead, he is just doing him. Stay connected with Da Da Franchise on all social media platforms!
