If You Don't Protect Your Hard-earned Assets Who Will?

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, April 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For those who are careful about their assets, there is a measure of fear that accompanies success. There is the drive to not only grow wealth, but to protect it. Are you doing enough to ensure that your assets are secure? Do you have a strategy in place when it comes to taxation advantages? Have you actively taken steps to make sure the next generation in your family is able to step in and take charge of the finances and business that you have built through years of hard work?

If the answer to any of these questions is no, what are you waiting for?

Ambitious investors know that the desire to preserve and grow wealth never disappears, and this is why many are turning to citizenship by investment as a means of protecting their assets. This is where experienced companies, such as Elevay, can step in and help.

Elevay is a Dubai-based international organization that has more than fifteen years of experience navigating the complex citizenship and residency by investment process on behalf of high net worth individuals. Their consultants will be able to guide you through the details of which citizenship by investment programs meet your specific needs for wealth protection. Building the foundation for the preservation of wealth is especially relevant in cases where a family business will be passed down to the next generation. If you are worried about whether your family will have the professional acumen to preserve what you have worked so diligently to create, citizenship by investment can provide a solution. Those who take advantage of citizenship by investment will be able to offer their children the opportunity to see the world visa-free, and the chance to study in the most prestigious educational institutions in the world. The end result will be that your children will grow into highly-driven leaders, acquiring the skills to connect people and build loyal networks of clients.

Additionally, Elevay consultants will be able to guide you through the details of which citizenship by investment programs have the best tax advantages for your particular situation. One example is the Ireland Immigrant Investor Program. Successful applicants can take advantage of Ireland's 12.5% corporate tax rate. Another example is the St. Kitts & Nevis citizenship by investment program which offers a series of investment incentives tax-wise. Citizens of St. Kitts benefit from zero income, wealth, and inheritance tax rates.
