

Comfort Keepers of Springfield Honoring Employees for 2nd Phillies Event

Last year, two of Comfort Keepers' in-home caregivers assisted in the first pitch ceremony and over 250 Comfort Keepers attended the event.

SPRINGFIELD, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, April 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On April 21st, Clark and Sallie Bongaardt, owners of Comfort Keepers of Springfield, PA, plan to say "thank you" to their caregivers by holding an annual Caregiver Appreciation Day event at the Philadelphia Phillies game. The game will be played against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Last year's Caregiver Appreciation Day event was such a success, there were no doubts in our minds about doing it for a 2nd year.”

Sallie Bongaardt

The festivities will begin long before the game begins, however. Comfort Keepers caregivers can expect a lively tailgate full of fun activities for children, free food, multiple food trucks, reserved seating, reimbursed parking, and a free t-shirt.

This is the 2nd year that Caregiver Appreciation Day is being held. The Bongaardts have no plans on stopping the tradition due to how well-received the event went last summer. At last year's event, two of Comfort Keepers' in-home caregivers assisted in the first pitch ceremony and over 250 Comfort Keepers attended the event.

Clark and Sallie Bongaardt, along with their son, Ian, have been providing senior care home care services to Springfield, PA, and surrounding areas since 2002. They dedicate their business to providing the highest quality of life that is achievable, considering each individual's specific circumstances.

The Bongaardt's Springfield location has accepted nothing but excellence throughout the last 16 years and they have received multiple awards for their efforts including the Best of Home Care Leader in Excellence Award, Provider of Choice Award, and Employer of Choice Award all for 2018.
