

New online Dive Travel Agency seeks support through crowdfunding

Pelagic Dive Travel has launched a crowdfunding campaign to take it to the next level. With its unique search and instant confirmations its sure to be a winner!

CAIRNS, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, April 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On, the 1st March 2018, Pelagic Dive Travel launched their site, for its new, online search and booking platform, for the certified SCUBA Diver.

Find your next dive discovery without hours of research.

Founder Terry Smith grew frustrated with the search process of trying to find a Manta Ray on dates that he could travel, and when he found a liveaboard, he was told it was full. As a dive professional and working in the tourism industry for over 20 years he created a search that allows you to find what you want to see and when you want to see it; this could be Whalesharks in October. The results show a world map, with Liveaboards, Dive Resorts, and Resorts, each showing real-time availability for the dates of travel. The diver can then find the room or cabin required, book, pay and receive a confirmation, all in one go.

The platform saves the diver hours of research, and with the real-time availability confirms the space without waiting days.

Our campaign is running on Indiegogo click "Back it" for an amount or "Get a perk" for savings off your next dive trip.

Contribute if you can or share the link.
